An autopsy determined an Aiken County inmate died of natural causes.

Aiken County Coroner Tim Carlton said Jimmy Keenan, 58, of Aiken, was pronounced dead at Aiken Regional Medical Center about 7 p.m.

According to the Aiken County Sheriff's Office, a detention officer was conducting routine checks when he found the inmate unresponsive in a shower. Onsite medical staff attempted to perform life-saving measures while waiting on an ambulance.

Capt. Eric Abdullah said Keenan was in jail on two counts of possession of less than one gram of meth or cocaine base.

The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division is investigating the incident at the request of the sheriff's office.
