Narrative

On Sunday, August 16, 2020 at approximately 0040 hours, Inmate Dynell Dise (B1-04) buzzed the tower saying that people were trying to get him. I, Deputy Matthew Cormier called Sgt. Jody Savoie to see if he could come talk to Dise. A few minutes later, Sgt. Savoie came to B-Pod and we went to B1-04 to speak with Dise. Sgt. Savoie decided to handcuff Dise and bring him the B-Pod rover room to speak with him. The handcuffs were checked for tightness and double locked. Upon speaking with Dise, he was observed displaying signs of paranoia. He kept stating that they were going to hurt him but he didnt know who. Sgt. Savoie determined that Lt. Stephen Maples needed to be informed of the situation. After speaking with Lt. Maples, it was determined that Dise was going to be placed back in B1-04 and that mental health would be notified of the situation. Sgt. Savoie asked Lt. Maples if he could get a few Deputies to come assist in putting Dise back in B1-01. Deputies Brent Tradewell, Gregory LaCour, and Michael Courville came and assisted us and Dise was placed back in B1-04 without incident. EOR/NFI
