Narrative

On Wednesday September 27, 2023 at 2350, I, Sgt. Jeremy Guillory, was working in Central Security at Calcasieu Correctional Center located at 5410 East Broad Street Lake Charles La. 70615 when Deputy Jered Bellar called for all available Deputies over the radio for a medical emergency. Sgt. Jeremy Hebert, Deputies Julian Jones, Luke Saxby, Austen McMichael, Francis Turner, Brandon Kelly, Heagan Frazier, and Nurse Adrienne Griffin all responded.

Sgt. Hebert, Nurse Griffin, and I made it to C-8-7 at 2351 where Inmate Keith Meche was laying in his bunk where he told Deputies that he couldn't breathe. Meche's condition appeared to be poor when we first made contact. He appeared to be pale in color. I asked Meche to tell us what the problem was. He said that he could not breathe, and he asked us for help. Deputy Saxby left to retrieve a wheelchair. Deputies helped Meche to the wheelchair when Saxby arrived. Deputy Bellar maintained control of the wheelchair as we escorted Meche to medical. I told Deputies Kelly, Frazier, and Turner to search cell 7 while all inmates were out of the cell for any contraband.

I placed the mattress on the floor that was in medical on the bed because Meche was attempting to get out of the wheelchair. Meche was helped to the floor by Deputy Jones, and I. Nurse Griffin tried to get a base set of vitals, but Meche was constantly moving to change position. He would lay on his back, then his side. Nurse Griffin then told us get an ambulance. Sgt. Hebert then left medical to notify Lt. Andrae Mitchell to have Acadian here. Meche then stopped moving and speaking to us. Nurse Griffin and I then began to palpate for a radial, and carotid pulse. We found none. We then immediately started CPR at 0003 with Sgt Hebert starting compressions. Deputy Dawn Spruell left to retrieve the AED. I hooked up the AED, and placed the leads on Meche while Deputies continued CPR, I put in an oral airway, and Nurse Griffin started a non-rebreather bag valve mask. I then administered one dose of Narcan to Meche.

Acadian Ambulance arrived in medical at 0014 while Deputies were still continuing CPR. Paramedic Brandon Duhon, and EMT Courtland Guillory continued their life saving protocols. Deputies continued CPR until 0101 when Dr. Sorge at Lake Charles Memorial Hospital called time of death.

Captain Brandon Strenth, Donald Sherer, and Jude Sonnier with FIU, and Detective Barrett Savoie arrived at 0201 to process the scene. Kenzie Ellender from the Coroner's office arrived at 0202. Michael Hollan and Miranda Fontenot arrived from the Coroner's office at 0223 to recover the body. All Deputies who were involved wrote voluntary statements. Refer to complaint number 23-103980
