Jennings, La. (KPLC) - A Jennings man died in custody Sunday after a medical emergency at the Jeff Davis Parish jail, said Chief Deputy Christopher Ivey of the Jeff Davis Parish Sheriff's Office.

Cody Joe Leger, 43, was booked on Tuesday, March 29 after a court appearance, and later transported to a hospital. Leger was released from the hospital the same day, and was being monitored by jail and medical personnel for several medical conditions, Ivey said.

Chief Deputy Christopher Ivey said Leger's cause of death is believed to be related to his medical conditions. (Jefferson Davis Parish Sheriff's Office)

Leger was in distress inside his cell Sunday afternoon, Ivey said. Medical employees at the jail administered CPR until MedExpress Ambulance personnel arrived on the scene.

Leger was pronounced dead at 4:33 p.m. by the Jennings American Legion Hospital emergency room physician, Ivey said. Leger's death is believed to be related to his medical conditions.

JDPSO and the Jeff Davis coroner are investigating the death, Ivey said. An autopsy is scheduled for Monday.

Leger's charges included domestic abuse battery with strangulation; domestic abuse battery with child endangerment; simple assault; violation of protective orders; failure to pay child support; and remaining on premises after forbidden.
