

Leadership

- Terrebonne Sheriff Tim Soignet elected July 2020
- Sheriff Soignet appointed Major Rhonda Ledet as Warden of Terrebonne Parish Jail in August 2020
- First female warden of the facility.
- She has been with the sheriff's office since 2005 in various corrections placements
- Lt. Col. Stephen Bergeron serves as Corrections Division Commander

The Facility

- Terrebonne Parish Jail is located in Ashland, outside of Houma
- Built in early 1990s
- Houses those awaiting trial and overflow of those in LDC custody
- Houses a max population of 575
- July 2021 pretrial population was 346
- Prone to flooding
- Jail population evacuated whenever a tropical storm or greater is tracking toward Houma
- 2022 push to build new jail in north Terrebonne does not appear to have gone anywhere as of Nov 2024