

Eunice City Jail

300 S 2nd St, Eunice, La 70535

ACLU of Louisiana's Justice Lab Sues City of Eunice, Police Chief After Whistleblower Exposes Corruption Within Police Department

Lieutenant Michael Dunn says department used excessive force, ignored medical needs of incarcerated people

Characteristics

- Built in 1962
- Houses both male and female offenders
- Capacity of 39 inmates
- Holds offenders serving short-term sentences or awaiting trial or transfer

Administration

- Eunice Police Department
 - Chief of Police: Kyle Lebouef
 - Deputy Chief of Police: Jeremy Ivory

News Coverage:

- ACLU sued former chief of police, Randy Fontenot after a whistleblower exposed corruption within the police department
- In 2021, 4 inmates staged a riot