Raymond Laborde Correctional Center
1630 Prison Rd, Cottonport, Louisiana 71327

Jail Characteristics:
- Opened in 1989 and sits on 1,187 acres
- Originally designed to hold 610 inmates, but after renovations it is capped at 1,564 inmates
- 326 Employees
- It has been accredited by the American Correctional Association's Commission eight times since 1989, with 2013 being the last year of the correctional center being accredited
- Attempted escapes and deaths transpire at Raymond Laborde Correctional Center

Weekly Programs:
- Educational Programming, such as, Literacy courses, Adult Basic Education, General Equivalency Diploma (GED) and Special School District
- Vocational Programs, for example, barbering, culinary arts, and welding
- Mental Health Services
  - ➡ Services will be provided for the appropriate needs of the imprisoned person
- Reentry
- Faith-based programming
- Community Service

Management:
- Warden Marcus Myers (picture to the bottom right)
- Sheriff David Dauzat

Demographic makeup of the Incarcerated:
- Presently 394 individuals in custody
- 273 of the 394 are men
- 121 of the 394 are women
- 47% of the people who are in custody are black

Media Coverage:
- Mysterious death
- Attempted escaped prisoners
- Founding of evidence bag at funeral home

Annual Budget:
- $24.5 million dollars (Raymond budget)
- Sheriff David Dauzat Salary: $197,621 (including benefits)