The Jefferson Parish Coroner's Office has identified the inmate who took his own life in a cell at the Jefferson Parish Correctional Center in Gretna Wednesday as Cleto Montoya Rodas, 41, a Metairie man who had been accused of raping and impregnating an 11-year-old girl.

Montoya's cause of death was asphyxia by hanging and was classified as a suicide, said Mark Bone, chief death investigator for the Coroner's Office.

Montoya had been held at the jail since his Jan. 19 arrest by the Jefferson Parish Sheriff's Office. The victim's mother contacted the Sheriff's Office after she discovered her daughter was pregnant, according to authorities.

The girl told investigators Montoya, who is known to her family, raped her multiple times, the Sheriff's Office said.

When questioned, Montoya denied vaginally raping the girl but admitted sexually abusing her, including inappropriate contact in a vehicle that was parked at a Kenner Walmart, authorities said.

The Sheriff's Office booked Montoya with first-degree rape and sexual battery. He was being held at the Gretna jail on a $550,000 bond.

About 7:30 a.m. Wednesday, corrections officers discovered Montoya's body in his cell, according to the Sheriff's Office. He was pronounced dead in the jail infirmary.
