Narrative

On July 6, 2025, at approximately 0520 hours, while overseeing F3 dormitory in Lafourche Parish Correctional Complex, I, Deputy Jon Reeves, was serving breakfast to F3. While serving, 4 inmates did not come up for their food. One of the inmates being inmate Andrew Moity. I brought the other 3 inmates food's first and then delivered inmate Moity's food last and he was in cell 1 in F3. Upon entering the cell I found inmate Moity hunched over in a chair to the right of the door when walking in. I immediately shook inmate Moity to see he was asleep and layed him out on to the floor. At the time inmate Moity face was blue and had a faint pulse. I immediately called for medical over the radio.

Prior to the event, the last time I seen inmate Andrew Moity was at approximately 0445 hours when I conducted a security check in the dorm. He was seen sitting in his hair watching TV. Inmate Moity was up all night requesting us to change the TV
